The attention of breeders and farmers is called to the fact that the Fast Trotting Stallion,

"NED WILSON,"
has been secured to make the season at the following places: Mondays at the farm of J. H. Avers, in Logan township, Marion county; Tuesdays at Durham, Wednesday at Rumbrook, on the farm of R. B. Gardner; Thursdays at Carlton; Fridays at Gypsum City; and Saturdays at Reubury.
"Ned Wilson" was foaled May 8, 1884. He is a fine mahogany bay, 16 1/2 hands high, weighs 1,100 pounds. Has good eyes, nicely formed head and very intelligent countenance. Deep sloping shoulders, good back, with the quarter and stifle. Large flat legs, finished with a good set of feet. Has a good disposition and is so tractable and gentle that a lady can drive him with perfect safety. He is a grand, good looking, a sure foot getter and a sound foot getter.

REPRODUCTION.
He was sired by Bob Tugwell, pacing record, 2:34, trotting 2:41. Bob Tugwell is descended from the renowned old Justin Morgan. His dam, Lady Clara, was sired by the famous Hambletonian Melancton, he by Rysdyk's Hambletonian, the founder of the Hambletonian family of trotters. Melancton sired: Romeo, 2:24 1/2; Cleora, 2:34 1/2; Lady; Harry Pulling, 2:34 1/2; Maggie P., 2:34 1/2; Silver Leaf, 2:34 1/2.
"Ned Wilson" has a record of 2:36, and with proper training could be made to lower that record. Some of his colts have become very fast trotters. You are invited to see him before making other arrangements.

The Reflector.

THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 1889.

The second annual convention of the Kansas Republican league has been called to meet at Topeka on May 9 at 10 o'clock.

Where is that great big black Blaine bug-a-boo about which the mugwumps and Democrats were howling a few weeks ago?

An enterprising couple were married the other day in the room where Lee surrendered to Grant. "So it goes," remarks a thoughtful exchange, "one war begins where another ends."

There has been a slight increase in business failures this year but the figures for March show a marked decrease both in number and magnitude. It does "make a difference" which party is in power.

Hank Baker is back from Washington where he went in hopes of "gittin'" something. As he didn't "git" it is suspected that President Harrison is able to recognize a third rate jim-crow politician afar off.

The "old crowd" and the "young Republicans" might as well have omitted the mutual hair-pulling in which they have indulged during the past few months. Neither of them got enough prizes to boast of.

Glen Elder Herald: A slate pencil cranks reckons that there are 342,000 persons who want to run the 57,000 postoffices in this country. That is nothing. Compare it with the number of persons who want to run the newspapers—why, there are apparently at least 5,000,000 anxious to run the newspapers.

It must be a matter of considerable satisfaction to Mr. Burton that the News has opened up its usual smut mill so early in the campaign. It has been demonstrated that the more mud thrown by Brother Strother the larger the majorities against him. A suspicion is already arising that Mr. Burton pays Strother so much a pint for shoveling mud.

The Indians will see an object lesson on the brotherly kindness and christian love of the white man next week that will sink deep into their hearts. The government would do much to preserve the Indians' faith in their white brothers by removing every redskin several hundred miles from Oklahoma until next fall.

The commissioner of education report for 1887-8, just issued, places the total amount expended for common schools in the United States at $115,103,886. This amounted to $199 per capita of total population, $10.27 per capita of population 6 to 14 years of age, and $15.40 per capita of average attendance. The schools were kept open a mean length of 135 days, so that each dollar expended furnished about 9 days' schooling on an average. The Northern and Western divisions expended from three to five times as much per capita of population 6 to 14 years of age as did the Southern division.

The only attempt to defend the votes of our senators in rejecting Mr. Halstead's confirmation is that during the excitement of 1863 Mr. Halstead severely criticised Mr. Lincoln, Gen. Grant and others. Suppose he did; is that the reason that Ingalls and Plumb voted against his confirmation? The reason which the senators give is a very different one. They say they are still smarting from the severe criticisms which Mr. Halstead made upon them when they voted against an investigation of Payne's election, which all believe was obtained through bribery. It is not so much the character of the vote against confirmation, but the baseness of the motive which prompted the vote which has aroused such an indignation throughout the country.

Terence V. Powderly, in a letter upon a bill now pending in the Pennsylvania legislature to regulate prison labor, states the views of the Knights of Labor upon the question of convict labor. He says: "It was not that prisons should earn dividends for contractors that they were erected. Here is the aim of the Knights of Labor regarding convicts: Do not keep criminals in idleness, but do not throw their labor on the market for a less price than that paid to honest labor; reform the imprisoned as well as punish them; give them work for their brains to do as well as for their hands; teach them how to be Christians while teaching them how to work; take what is given to the contractor out of their earnings and give it to themselves when they leave prison, or allow their earnings to go to the support of their families if they have any; instead of throwing these families on the charities of the town, while the prison contractor reaps a reward from crime that causes him to wish that the crop of criminals may grow larger."

A bewildered Washington editor after reading the flaming accounts of the Oklahoma boomers' antics sorrowfully remarks: "Far be it from our desire to turn iconoclast and go to tearing down the idols and ideals the centuries have built up. But, just the same, after reading the reports of how the multitudes are leaving good homes and gathering at Oklahoma, we wonder if there really is such an officer as the foolkiller."

Republican county conventions in the Fourth district will be held April 27th and the district convention May 1st. Seeing that we can't do much else, let's watch the fur fly.

The following bit of sizzling writing which appeared last week in a Western Kansas paper, duly signed by the aggrieved party, were are saving up to spring on some local contemporary the first time we get into a quarrel:

"If that lank, lean, lantern-jawed, cross-eyed, sway-backed, bow-legged, wabble-jawed, leprosy-stricken, hyena-hearted, totally depraved, conscienceless, Sabbath-desecrating, cadaverous, half-breed thief who stole two chickens, a lot of cobs, a bunch of 'A' shingles, etc., from my place, will come around, he can have the house and lot, or I will recommend him as a fit man to take charge of the binding twine trust, or some other octopus-like job, where his grasping abilities will be appreciated."

Let Abilene Celebrate.

The approach of the 100th anniversary of the first inauguration ceremony and really of the organization of the government makes the consideration of the celebration of that event timely. On April 30th the most elaborate ceremonies since those of 1876 will take place in New York. In all the large cities of the nation the day will be fittingly observed by appropriate exercises participated in by the leading citizens of the community.

In Chicago it is proposed that there shall be a suspension of business, and an assembling of citizens in all the churches at as early an hour as 9 o'clock, for religious services of thanksgiving and praise to God, after the manner of our forefathers, to be followed by the gathering together in all of the public schools of their hundred thousand, or more, scholars for appropriate exercises, addresses and national music, and for the presentation to all the pupils of medals as souvenirs of the patriotic occasion. Later in the day the adult citizens to assemble in the largest halls to listen to distinguished orators, and finally the exhibition in the evening of fire-works to conclude the patriotic programme.

Would it not be fitting that the day be duly observed in this city? Would it not be to our credit if we closed our places of business and in some appropriate though not necessarily expensive way recognized the occasion? Music, decorations and an address by some orator will help impress the lesson of this national holiday—the only one of the century—upon the minds of all. No such memorable occasion can occur again in the lives of any of us and ought to properly observe it will subject us to regret and merited reproach. The occasion is a unique one and gives abundant material for profitable reminiscence and study of the nation's life. Too high an estimate cannot be placed upon the birth-right of American citizenship, nor too much pride taken in belonging to the grandest republic and nation on earth.

All that is necessary in order that Abilene have a proper observance of the day is that a few prominent citizens take hold of the matter; we are sure that all will assist in making the program, whatever it may be, a success. The Reflector will cheerfully lend its space and its efforts to the furtherance of the celebration.

With what a "striking similarity" a number of the slavish party organs denounce and attempt to hoodoo a man who has the independence to criticise the acts of those who are supposed to have something to say in the distribution of spoils under this administration. No sooner had Mr. Burton told a friend in Topeka that the votes of our United States senators, against the confirmation of Murat Halstead, in vindication of the methods of the Standard Oil company in purchasing a seat in the United States for Mr. Henry B. Payne, was a gross misrepresentation of the people of Kansas, than a number of editors who are cemented to the coat tails of our senators began to call names, and the epithets which have been hurled at Mr. Burton would fill a larger dictionary than some of these editors have ever been suspected of opening. If Mr. Burton had been guilty of firing a loaded revolver into the United States senate chamber he could not have been more roundly abused than he has been for denouncing a vote of our two senators which everybody believes was prompted by unworthy motives, and which vote so far as Kansas editor has had the hardihood to attempt to defend. It is well enough once in a while to call a spade a spade, and a spade is nothing but a spade whether it is used by a United States senator or one of our common Jayhawkers.

A bewildered Washington editor after reading the flaming accounts of the Oklahoma boomers' antics sorrowfully remarks: "Far be it from our desire to turn iconoclast and go to tearing down the idols and ideals the centuries have built up. But, just the same, after reading the reports of how the multitudes are leaving good homes and gathering at Oklahoma, we wonder if there really is such an officer as the foolkiller."

Republican county conventions in the Fourth district will be held April 27th and the district convention May 1st. Seeing that we can't do much else, let's watch the fur fly.

Democratic Tyranny.

The Democrats of Florida have devised a new method of doing away with Republican rule in the municipalities of that state. Jacksonville has always elected a Republican mayor and has had a Republican council. The result is that the government of that city has been excellent and the city one of the most prosperous in the state. Diligent efforts have been made to wrest the government from the Republicans, but without avail. Neither the shotgun policy nor the tissue-ballot racket would work among the intelligent people of that village.

The state legislature, in which the Democrats have a decisive preponderance, is anxious to change all this. The Republicans are not to manage their own affairs, even in purely municipal matters.

There is pending in the legislature "an act to amend an act entitled 'an act to establish the municipality of Jacksonville, provide for its government, and prescribe its jurisdiction and powers.'" These are samples of the proposed amendments:

SECTION 1. The mayor shall be elected by the city council from among the registered voters of said city for the term of two years at the first regular meeting in May 1889, and biennially thereafter. He shall have power to preserve the peace within the city. He shall receive such compensation, not exceeding $100 per month, as may be fixed by the city council before his election. * * *

Sec. 3. That section 1 of article 3 of said act be amended so as to read as follows. Section 1. The legislative power of said corporation shall be exercised by a city council composed of eighteen members appointed by the governor for a term of three years, two from each election district of said city, as at present districted.

The right of self-government is wholly taken away from the people. The governor of a state appoints the council of a city, and the governor's appointees select a mayor—presumably of the governor's nominating. This is a little behind Russian methods. Some shadow of local self-government lingers around the throne of the strongest European despotism; it is reserved for the Democrats of a Southern state to deny all semblance of it to a Southern city. It is infamous.

An Ohio man, so the dispatches say, took the small pox the other day from a pig afflicted with the disease. An Ohio man will take anything.

Utah wants to be a state. The government should refuse to "confirm" the ambitious territory's aspirations.

A firm with a big display ad in the McPherson Freeman signs itself: "Yours Respectively." The public ought to let them severely alone and trade with a firm that talks more "respectfully."

The administration has as yet done nothing toward changing the color of the sickly green postage stamp. It could, though, if it wished, get some valuable points on improving the sticking qualities of the mucilage from the actions of the office hunters at the capital.

The Enterprise Independent has changed management and William Whelan is at the helm. If the new editor can keep the Independent a-Whelan forward as rapidly as did Mr. Case, he will deserve much credit and prove himself a success. Pressure of other business induces Mr. Case to leave the paper. The Independent remains staunchly Republican, according to the promise of the new editor's salutatory.

It is probable that next year, judging from appearances, there will be an attempt to overturn all the Kansas members of the lower house of congress, except E. J. Turner, and in January unsent Senator Ingalls. Should the latter movement succeed, the men in the race would be George R. Peck, William P. Hackney, J. R. Burton, and possibly Chief Justice Horton. The contest, however, so far as the public is concerned, is a long ways off.

Secretary Noble has made himself clearly understood in a very brief announcement of his policy in regard to removals and appointments. He says: "As fast as we find an inefficient Democrat, we shall replace him with an efficient Republican." That has the ring of very practical civil service reform.

The brethren in charge of the administration gullotines will not have to look very far to find "inefficient Democrats" and it is not probable that the standard will be raised very high.

A letter from one of the excursionists to Topolobampo published in the Hope Dispatch mentions the colonists as chiefly engaged in two things—working like beavers in the fields and getting paid "by credit in the company" and having dances every Saturday night. As the company's credit is several hundred per cent below par and dances are rather—work must be rather wearisome task, we would prefer making a fool of oneself by going to Oklahoma than by seeking the sand hills of Sinaloa.
